LONGSTREET COMMUNITY WINS $200.00

In the recent North Georgia Rural Community Improvement Contest sponsored by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and the University of Georgia, the Longstreet Community Club was awarded a cash prize of $200.00.

Longstreet Community, located a few miles out of Newnan in Coweta County, is composed of 44 aggressive and public spirited families. Two white churches, Cokes Chapel Methodist and Ebenezer Baptist and one colored, Ebenezer Baptist, offer the best for spiritual growth to every age group. During 1956, Longstreet Community, headed by J. Frank Russell, contributed $2,346.00 toward the improvement of these churches and grounds.

Many other community improvements could be mentioned . . . but better let's look at the goals the Club now has set about to reach in '57. President, Lamar Lasseter says "We have our eyes on first place this year—what we couldn't do with $1,000.00". Leading projects for this year include grading and cleaning grounds for the Club, Cokes Chapel, buying and installing playground equipment and lighting the play area.

Longstreet's 1957 officers are L-R: Mrs. Gordon Carter, Mrs. Frank Russell, President Lamar Lasseter, Mrs. J. P. Todd and Mrs. G. C. Lasseter.

Lamar Lasseter auctions off Valentine Boxes of candy made by the ladies. Over $30.00 was raised on this one evening

The Choir, under the excellent direction of Mrs. Lib Todd, ranks with the best. Mrs. E. M. Smith serves as organist. Over 20 voices will be heard in the Easter Cantata.
